A Matter of Honor

Towns Remember Those Who Bravely Served Their Country

Like so many holidays which have lost their true meaning to commercialized excess, Memorial Day for most has come only to signify the official start of the summer season. It is traditionally highlighted with a barrage of cookouts, family outings, three-day weekend vacations, and — for resort communities like Mattapoisett and Marion — the return of summer residents from their year-round habitats.

Yet a small band of dedicated people in the tri-town area work each year to ensure that the original intent of Memorial Day is not lost amidst the otherwise superficial events of the summer kickoff.

They work to make sure that a certain level of solemnity and dignity remains, as those who bravely made the ultimate sacrifice for their country are remembered and honored for their efforts.

The small, newly-placed replicas of the Stars and Stripes wavered in the mid-afternoon breeze as Mattapoisett Selectman and American Legion member John N. DeCosta ran over a mental list of the various sites and memorials to be visited during the town's Memorial Day exercises Monday afternoon.

Outside the public library on Barstow Street, he pointed out the tall Civil War monument and explained that the beautiful blossoming tree near the monument's green was planted in memory of Florence Eastman, after whom his American Legion Post 280 was named.

"This tree was planted in her honor," he said. "We place a wreath at the base of the tree every year and say a few words in her memory."

After honoring those lost at sea in a brief ceremony and the throwing of memorial wreaths into the sea at the town wharf, Mr. DeCosta said the parade will travel to Cushing Cemetery to honor the many veterans buried there.

Former Selectman and Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) member Harry A. Brown Jr. surveyed the large white plaque of names honoring the Rochester residents who served in both World War II and the Korean War at the intersection of Route 105 and Mary's Pond Road. He cited several names from the list which have long historical ties to the development and expansion of the rural community.

"Most of these families have lived in Rochester for generations," he said, "and almost all of them have direct descendents still living in the area — either in Rochester or Mattapoisett or Marion."

Having the distinction of once including all three towns and a part of Wareham, Rochester supplied more soldiers per capita than any other town in Massachusetts during the Revolutionary War and has provided an admirable number of military service volunteers since. Even some 9 veterans of the country's most recent tour of duty — troops who served in Operation Desert Storm during the Persian Gulf War — are honored on a special plaque inside the entrance to Town Hall, which Mr. Brown said will be one of the stops during the Memorial Day ceremonies.

The parade route will eventually lead to the World War I, World War II, and Korean monuments and the memorial site of the square's namesake, Calvin R. Daggett, who was the former Scoutmaster

"I served as his assistant scoutmaster many years ago," Mr. Brown said, looking at the bronze plaque commemorating Mr. Daggett. "I can't believe it's been ten years since he passed away."

Members of Marion's Department of Public Works worked diligently last week to move the immense World War I monument from its place between the Town House and the Elizabeth Taber Library in time for this weekend's Memorial Day observances. Using hydraulic jacks, the DPW crew grappled with the several ton monument to take it to its new location at Old Landing Wharf where it will remain with the World War II, Korean, and Vietnam War monuments already in place there. Known by some as Veterans' Park, this location will be one of many stops on Marion's Memorial Day Parade route.

According to VFW member Warren Washburn, the relocation was suggested in order to keep all the monuments grouped together. Mr.

Washburn added that his organization is donating a copper beech tree to be planted at the monument's former location.

As a special honor to Marion's sole living veteran of World War I, Benjamin Dexter, the parade will be travelling to the Sippican Long Term Health Care facility to visit Mr. Dexter who has always been an integral part of the Memorial Day celebration in the past. For health reasons, Mr. Dexter cannot actively participate this year, but will be honored during this special stop on the parade route.

Marion resident Joseph Zora recently reminisced about Mr. Dexter during the DPW's monument moving efforts. "He's an amazing person," Mr. Zora said. "It's worth spending time and talking with him ... he knows so much about the history of the town."

In addition to other memorials in town, the Marion Parade will also visit the gravesite of Benjamin D. Cushing, whom the VFW Post 2425 is named after, and the Civil War monument outside the Music Hall.

• Rochester's Memorial Day Observances will start at 12:00 noon on Sunday, May 30 in front of Town Hall with members of the Board of Selectmen, representatives from the VFW, and local Boy Scout and Girl Scout troops. A brief ceremony will commence, including a reading of the Gettysburg Address and the citing of all the names listed on the various memorials in and around the center of town.

• Marion's Memorial Day Exercises and Parade will begin at 9:00 am on Monday, May 31 at the Music Hall on the corner of Front and Cottage Streets with the raising of the Colors by the Mattapoisett Council on Aging came before the board to present them with certificates of appreciation for their many volunteer efforts and overall support for the COA. Ms. Pursley presented one certificate for each Selectman and stressed that on behalf of the organization, she wanted to thank them for being so supportive in the past.

Ms. Pursley also updated the board on the new COA van which should be in soon. The new van will seat 9 or 10 people and come equipped with a wheelchair lift unit. The present van will be returned to Coastline Elderly Services, from whom the Mattapoisett COA leased the vehicle.

The following meetings scheduled throughout the week were next cited by Chairman DeCosta:

• Saturday, May 29 at 9:00 am — Police Negotiations in the Selectmen's office.

• Monday, May 31 at 1:30 pm — Memorial Day Parade and Exercises at the Public Library.

Chairman DeCosta next went over incoming correspondence for the week, beginning with a letter from the "Citizens to Protect Our Post Office," urging the board to contact area Legislators and prevent the closing or removal of the town's municipal post office.

Both Chairman DeCosta and Selectman Mahoney were of the mind that they would like to wait and research the matter further and wait until Selectman Lambalot could be present before addressing the possibility of such changes in the town's postal service.

Committee, next submitted a copy of a guide to the Comprehensive Conservation and Management Plan as prepared by the Coalition for Buzzards Bay.

Mark P. Rasmussen, Coordinator of the Local Government Monitoring Project for the Coalition for Buzzards Bay, next sent a letter to the board advising them that the Coalition is seeking dedicated citizens to serve as monitors in their community to increase environmental awareness and help protect the Bay. Roughly 112 volunteers are needed through the various Buzzards Bay communities.

A copy of the town's Landfill Inspection Report, No. 32, was next submitted to the board as conducted by Tighe & Bond. The inspection was held on May 4 and conducted by J. Thelen.

Patricia Farrell, Government Relations Manager of Continental Cablevision next submitted correspondence outlining the regulations recently adopted by the Federal Communications Commission. These new regulations, which fall under the 1992 Cable Act which was passed earlier this year, make certain stipulations as to cable use and rates through local vendors.

The Plymouth County Commissioners next sent information relative to the newly-approved rates for health and life insurance with town. Within the upcoming fiscal year, the Blue Cross Master Health rates will be increased by 4 percent.

A copy of the minutes from a meeting of the Friends of the Mattapoisett Town Band were next submitted for the board's review. Chairman DeCosta noted that the following officers will be serving on the committee: Archibauld Lammey (Chairman), Claire Bessette (Vice Chairman), Frances Cairns (Treasurer), Bob Coquillette (Secretary), Lois Murray (Publicity), Ethel Pederson (Marketing), and Paul Alves (Band Liaison).

Chairman DeCosta also noted that some $2,116.92 was leftover in the account from last year (as of April 1, 1993), and another $710 has been collected so far this year. Any residents wishing to donate further to this worthwhile cause can send checks, made payable to the "Town of Mattapoisett," to the Mattapoisett Town Hall, c/o John N. DeCosta, or drop off their contributions in person. The first concert of the season will be slated for some time around July 4.

Kenneth Shwartz, President of Universal Industries on Industrial Drive in Mattapoisett, next sent a letter to the board regarding proposed plans to relocate the town's rural delivery postal service to the Rochester Post Office. Mr. Shwartz is concerned that the re-routing will create an added hardship on the town's economy and possibly delay urgent delivery of packages for businesses like his. "It is my fervent hope that the U.S. Postal Service plans are not irreversible," he wrote. "In my opinion, the plans will not serve the town's residents nor its businesses well."

The board agreed to take this matter under consideration at a future date.

The Division of Marine Fisheries next sent the board notification that the following area is now open to the taking of shellfish: "The waters, flats, and all tributaries of that portion of Buzzards Bay in the Towns of Mattapoisett and Marion, north of a line drawn due east from the end of Mattapoisett Neck Road to the Plymouth/Barnstable County line; southeasterly of a line drawn from the end of Mattapoisett Neck Road to Angelica Point; south of a line drawn east from Angelica Point to the Plymouth/Barnstable County line, and west of the Plymouth/Barnstable County line."

Under the Executive Secretary's report, the board was reminded that the DARE Graduation Ceremony to be held at ORR Junior High School has been changed from Friday, June 4 to Thursday, June 3 at 1:00 pm at the school. Old Colony will also be holding its Commencement Exercises on June 6 at 1:00 pm at the school, to which the board is cordially invited.

The board was also advised in a note from Ms. Adams that if they wish to have anything placed on the agenda for the next Tri-Town Selectmen's Meeting (to be held on June 10 in Marion), they should submit such information to Helene Craver.

improvements to Ichabod Lane and an amount for $75,000 was approved at the Annual Town Meeting for this purpose. Article XXIII of the Town by-laws, the Betterments Statute, requires the town to assess betterments based on the ownership of lots as of January 1 of the year the betterments are initially assessed.

As of January 1, 1993, there were twenty-six lots on Ichabod Lane to be assessed an additional $650 per year for five years as of FY 1994 tax billing cycle. Mr. Smith brought to the attention of the board documents from the Registry of Deeds in Plymouth stating that the three lots owned by Elizabeth and Russell Ladner had yet to be entered as consolidated for the record. But, according to the January 1 assessment, the lots had been consolidated. Mr. Smith expressed his feelings about the matter saying it's "not fair when we are to pay based on lots ... we're subsidizing them." Mr. Pickles responded stating he will contact the Register of Deeds concerning this matter, provide Mr. Smith with documentation, and recommended he meet with the Planning Board to further address this issue.

• A series of Pole Hearings to be held for New England Telephone on June 1 and June 7.

• Invitation to commencement ceremonies at Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School on Sunday, June 6 at 1:00 pm.

Chairwoman Hawkes next suggested that the board meet on alternating weeks during the summer months and recommended that meetings be held according to the following schedule: June 1, June 7, June 21, July 5, July 19, August 2, August 16, August 30.

Selectman Murphy said he didn't have any problem with that as long as it was legal to do so.

Selectman Hughes said he was concerned that correspondence would fall behind in going on a two-week schedule, but Ms. Ferreira noted that incoming correspondence and appointments generally slow down during the summer months.

Chairwoman Hawkes said if any emergency matter comes up, she will be perfectly willing to schedule a special meeting to address it.

The motion was made by Chairwoman Hawkes and seconded by Selectman Murphy. Selectman Hughes still had reservations about the schedule, but did go along with the wishes of his fellow board members, making it a unanimous vote.

"I'm not totally in favor of it," he said. "But I'll go along with the board."

Chairwoman Hawkes next noted that the town's Industrial Development Finance Authority is looking for someone to serve on their board. Anyone

Under New Business, Selectman Hughes asked that a note be sent to SEMASS asking them to limit traffic on King's Highway as much as possible as he has received some complaints from residents. Chairwoman Hawkes said it would be okay to make a suggestion to that effect, but she didn't feel a formal letter was necessary.

At 7:20 pm, the board met in Executive Session with Public Prosecutor Harry Schmitt regarding past and future litigation with the Town of Rochester. Before taking a roll call vote, Attorney Robert L. Perry asked if the discussion was concerning his client, Dwight McCombe. Mr. Schmitt and Town Counsel Everett Marder said it did. Mr. Perry said he was opposed to a discussion of any past litigation, since a decision had been rendered in Mr. McCombe's favor, but pending litigation was in order. With that clarification, the board met briefly in Executive Session with Mr. Schmitt, with Selectman Murphy abstaining from the discussion since it concerned a similar business interest.

At 7:45 pm, the board voted to go back into Executive Session with Town Counsel Everett Marder of Kopelman and Paige to discuss a Collective Bargaining Strategy between the town and the police department and to also discuss threatened and imminent litigation to the Town of Rochester.

Upon a unanimous roll call vote of the entire board, they went back into Executive Session and

Corrections

• In our report on the Marion Selectmen's Meeting of May 11 (on page 20 of our May 14 edition — Volume 2, Number 19), it was incorrectly reported that Marion residents were allowed to keep up to three unregistered vehicles on their property during a recent charity drive. Marion's Zoning By-Laws allow only one unregistered vehicle and it must be kept in the rear half of the lot.

• In our coverage of Mattapoisett's Annual Town Meeting (May 21 issue — Volume 2, Number 20), ORR District School Committee member Llewellyn V. Roberts' name was incorrectly cited on page 12.

Letter to the Editor

To the Editor:

I wish to take this opportunity to express thanks to all those who have donated time, effort and money toward the relandscaping of the (Marion) Town House.

Through the efforts of Joan Lanza, Brad Silva and our own Department of Public Works, the front entrance to the Town House has been transformed. Our hats are off to these dedicated people for their hard work.

This project is the result of a donation by the Sippican Lands Trust in memory of Everett Gibbs, Selectman and long-time member of the Lands Trust. The plantings in front of the Town House have been dedicated to his memory. Additionally, the Marion Garden Discussion Group has donated funds for the two flowering cherry trees on either side of the building and the blue spruce on the Main Street side of the building, and the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) has donated a copper beech to be placed between the Town House and the library.

We are hoping to complete the landscaping on the Main Street side of the building once the underground oil tank has been removed. In order to do this, we are still most appreciative of donations. Checks can be mailed to the Marion Town House, 2 Spring Street and made payable to the Town of Marion, Landscape Fund.

Our sincere thanks to all those who worked so hard to make our Town House look so elegant. Once again, the Marion Townspeople have worked together for the benefit of all.

Thank you,
Loretta B. Schaefer

start of another peak summer season in the tri-town area. This is a perfect opportunity for all returning summer residents to consider adding a new member to their summer abode.

Through the efforts of the local chapter of Animal Umbrella, Inc., and its local agents Mary Lou Kobak and Priscilla Thompson, you can adopt one of many ideal offerings to complement those lazy, hazy, crazy days of summer.

Up for consideration are any of the following choice adoptees:

• A one- to two-year-old black & white cat with trimmed long hair with white paws in front and boots in the rear.

• Also found in the Mattapoisett Neck Road/ Route 6 area is an orange, neutered tiger, which could either be a lost family pet or one up for adoption.

• Some 15 to 30 kittens will also soon be ready for adoption, including a variety of calicos, tigers, all blacks, orange, and gray & whites. Among the more prominent is a bob tail calico, about 10 days old, who is adorable and ready to cuddle up to a new pet lover. Others include three calicos (all double pawed) and various other breeds.

The group is also in dire need of people in the tri-town area who are willing to serve as foster

Book Review

Sister Aimee: The Life of Aimee Semple McPherson
• Daniel Mark Epstein, Harcourt Brace, $27.50

Aimee Semple McPherson's method of spreading the gospel to save souls was controversial, to say the least, and in the period between the world wars she became a national obsession.

Half minister of God and half actress, McPherson was a fascinating character — attractive, outspoken, and powerful — who made great enemies as well as great friends. As a Pentecostal, she included glossolalia and faith healing in her ministry. She staged sermons at the Angelus Temple in Hollywood like Busby Berkley musicals.

Daniel Mark Epstein seems to have genuine feeling for his subject. While admitting the evangelist's erratic side, he is careful to include the more noble aspects of her character. Among many good works, for example, she and her church cared for thousands of people who migrated to California during the Depression and were left homeless.

The book sheds little new light on Aimee's life, though the bare facts are astonishing enough to make for a good story. He doesn't solve the mystery of her bizarre disappearance in May 1926, but with care he captures the details of the sensational story. Was she kidnapped and held for ransom? Or was she shacked up with a recent lover?

Whatever happened, McPherson wandered in from the California desert a month after her disappearance, disoriented and clad in a white nightgown.

Epstein does a good job at giving the reader an intimate portrait of Aimee Semple McPherson — spectacles and all, to her death in 1944. Even that was cloaked in speculation: suicide or accidental overdose?

Cancer Survivors Day in Marion

Dr. Davis T. Gallison, President of Strength for Tomorrow, a local cancer support group, will host the first annual Cancer Survivors Day on Sunday, June 6 from 1:30 - 3:30 pm at Ned's Point in Mattapoisett. If you are a cancer survivor, you and your family and friends are cordially invited to attend.

"If you have been diagnosed with cancer, you are a cancer survivor," noted Davis T. Gallison of Marion. "It doesn't matter if you've had cancer for one day or the last thirty years. You don't have to be cured of cancer to be a cancer survivor. Once diagnosed, you are a survivor for the rest of your life."

The day will be fun and educational, with activities under a tent, including a host of free literature, light refreshments, along with balloons and buttons for participants.

It is estimated that there are about 9 million "survivors" of cancer nationwide who are either undergoing treatment or cured of cancer. The American Cancer Society will also observe it 9th Annual Cancer Survivor's Day in June.
